The fair of the ladies of the Catholic parish opened at the town hall, last evening, with a large attendance. It will continue through Tuesday evening, and as in former years, is likely to prove a great success socially and financially.

Mr. Albert Chapman returned home, Tuesday night, from New York, where he had been for several days. His son, John W., who was ordained to the ministry of the Episcopal church last summer, is engaged in missionary work there.

On Monday will be celebrated, at Cambridge, Mass., the 250th anniversary of the founding of Harvard college. President Brainerd will represent this college at the ceremonies, and Prof. Scott, who is a graduate of the institution, will also attend.

Major Whitmore and wife of the Salvation army spent last Saturday and Sunday with the local forces of the army, and crowded meetings were held. They went hence to Rutland on Monday. The army is now represented here by Lieut. Edna Trafton and Cadet Ayers.

Mr. E. W. Burke, who has been in Cobleskill, N. Y., for the past two years engaged in the book and stationery business, has come back to town. He has rented the store in the McLeod block and is to continue there the line of business which he has latterly followed.

Mrs. M. V. Douglas has gone to Minneapolis to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Cray, and family. Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Douglas' mother, intended going also, but was injured last week by being thrown from a carriage. She is improving rapidly and will soon be up and about, her friends believe.

The ladies of the Congregational church propose to have a "basket tea" and sociable on Friday evening, November 12, at their lecture-room. A musical entertainment may be expected in connection with it, of which further particulars will be given next week. A pleasant and amusing time is promised to all who will attend.

Hon. John W. Stewart is in receipt of a letter from an ex-confederate soldier in one of the Carolinas, inquiring for the relatives of the late Col. Cummins, who was killed before Petersburg, in September, 1864, from whose person the ex-confederate took some little articles which he would like to return to the colonel's family.

The boys were out in force, Saturday night, and there were numerous evidences Sunday morning that they put in a good deal of work in the way of mending and other moveable property and in cutting-up generally. They did not confine themselves to the middle of the town, but visited the college premises as well. It was Hallowe'en.

The trial of the case of State vs. Robert Steele, which was set for Wednesday, was continued to one week from today. State's Attorney Wilds' absence in Montpelier was the ground of the continuance. The charge against Steele is assault on Officer Cobb. The respondent has retained Hon. Henry Ballard of Burlington, who came down Wednesday to appear for his client.

Letters addressed as follows have remained at the postoffice one month unclaimed: Joseph Blaize, Mrs. Avery Bird, Mrs. Alice E. Clark, A. B. Coleman, J. P. Fenn, James Gribbon, Mrs. C. E. Goodrich, Mrs. C. E. Hale, Julia Miner, E. D. Norton, Chas. Parker, Geo. E. Prescott, Mrs. Gilman Prichard, Miss Annie Quinlan, Joseph Torrey, Norbert Webb.

Tomorrow evening at 7:30 three of the freshmen are to be tried in the college chapel, by a mock court, for breaking into a room in Starr hall. The court is made up as follows: Judge, Geo. R. Wales '87; side judges, Cliff '88 and Coolidge '88; sheriff, Klock '88; deputy, Dunton '89; clerk, Alden '89; the State's attorney, Howe '87, will be assisted by Allen '88 and Edgerton '88. Clark '87 and Winchester '87 will appear for the defendants. Admission free.

Dr. Kingsley and Mr. P. F. Chapman arrived home Saturday morning from New York, whither they had been to attend the wedding of Mr. H. E. Smith of this town, which took place on the evening of the 27th ult. It was at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Slater—the latter being a sister of the bride, Miss Marion I. Wood—308 West Eighty-third street. Dr. Kingsley officiated as one of the ushers and Mr. Chapman as "best man." Mr. and Mrs. Smith are expected to arrive in town in a few days.

A large audience assembled at the music hall in the chapel of the Episcopal church on Wednesday evening, when the programme given in last week's REGISTER was carried out in a very happy manner. It was the first public appearance of the college quartette as reorganized this fall. It is now composed of E. D. Howe, first tenor; B. M. Coolidge, second tenor; J. A. Fletcher, first bass; and J. M. Thomas, second bass. Mr. Thomas, the new member, has a fine voice and is a great addition to the quartette. After the music refreshments were served and all went away well satisfied with their evening's entertainment.

MIDDLEBURY Y. M. C. A.

The regular monthly business meeting of the association will be held on Wednesday evening next at 7:45 o'clock.

Secretary Parsons conducted the services at the hall on Sunday. The classes met on Monday and Tuesday evenings as usual. Next Sunday afternoon Rev. Mr. Noe will speak at the services in the hall.

Nearly eight months ago Mr. A. L. Parsons came to Middlebury to assist in the work of the Y. M. C. A. He had been engaged in successful and much-needed evangelical work in Rutland county, but came here because of the great needs of the association. He has recently tendered his resignation as general secretary, being moved by a desire to enter again upon distinctively evangelistic labors. His resignation has been accepted, and negotiations are now under way which, it is hoped, will secure for our village the labors of a young man who will come from a school where men are especially trained for Y. M. C. A. work. Mr. Parsons will probably remain in the rooms till all the arrangements are complete.

Horses: Their Feed and Their

FEET. A Manual of Horse Hygiene, invaluable for the veteran or the novice, pointing out the causes of "malaria," "glanders," "pink eye," "distemper," etc., and how to prevent and counteract them. By Dr. FARRIS. This book gives in a condensed form much that is valuable on the care of horses, that has not before been published. The subject is considered from a new and original standpoint, and stated in a plain, practical, common-sense manner, showing how by proper care we may add many valuable years of life and usefulness to our horses. Unlike many books issued on this subject, it does not advise any medicines.
